Map & Directions

The walk begins with a 0.5 mile walk from Phoenix Muni Parking to the Zoo, on an easy paved path. In the zoo, the Zoowalk will cover 1.1 miles on an easy paved path, with some shade and places to stop and view the animals. At the end of the Zoowalk, walkers can return to Phoenix Muni Parking by walking or by bus (until 1 pm).

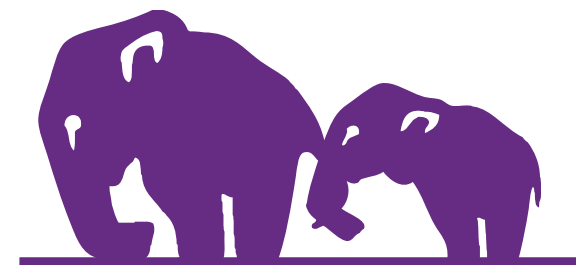

Walking paths are ideal for strollers, wheelchairs and wagons. No bikes, skateboards or roller blades, please. After 9:00 am, walkers may stay and enjoy the zoo facilities (free admission with Zoowalk bracelet).

Handicap Parking - People with handicapped placards may utilize the Zoo parking lot and register at the entrance. Zoo registration is reserved for people with handicapped placards and accompanying travelers in the same vehicle. Everyone else should register at Phoenix Muni Stadium.

Go to www.zoowalk.org for a more detailed map and directions. Carpooling is advised!

About Us

The ASU Autism/Asperger's Research Program (led by Prof. James Adams) is currently performing research studies to find appropriate treatments for children and adults with ASD. For more info, go to: <http://autism.asu.edu>.

The Autism Research Institute, founded in 1967 by Bernard Rimland, is the oldest and 2nd largest autism research foundation in the US. ARI's Defeat Autism Now! conference series is the leading source of information on biomedical treatments for families and physicians, and is available free from www.autism.com.
